

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Fees are non-refundable.
2. Competition consists of individual modeling in Sunday attire or pageant wear followed by a group line up. Dressing rooms are not available. Contestants should come dressed with hair and make-up completed.
3. One individual is permitted back stage with contestants under the age of 4 years old. Contestants will line up prior to their competition and be taken backstage by MGGC volunteers.
4. Contestants will compete in the age group they are in on the day of the competition. If incorrect information is provided on the registration form, the contestant will be disqualified and awards returned to MGGC.
5. Disrespectful conduct towards other contestants, judges, or pageant representatives by parents, relatives or contestants may result in disqualification.
6. PHOTOGENIC (Optional): Contestants may compete for Photogenic by entering as many photographs as they like, $5.00 per photograph. Photographs can be generic or professional, must have name on the back, and should be no larger than 8 x 10. Photographs will be judged prior to the competition and will be available for pick up at the competition.
7. If there are not enough contestants in a given age group, the MGG organization reserves the right to combine age groups.
